Chopin?s The Awakening centers on Edna Pontellier, a woman who experiences a profound internal awakening that leads her to question her prescribed roles within her family and society. Her journey symbolizes a broader desire for personal freedom and self-expression, challenging the traditional Victorian ideals prevalent at the time. The novel?s candid portrayal of female desire and autonomy marked a significant departure from the norms of its era, making it an early literary embodiment of awakening as a form of social and personal liberation.
